

From the Station Manager's Desk!

As a radio station that has built its identity as "Chicago's Home for Jazz," we at WDCB are ever appreciative of the rich African-American culture that provides the wellspring for this musical art form we love so much.

On Tuesday evenings, from 7-8pm during the month of February, WDCB will present a series of Black History Month radio specials.

As part of our Black History Month celebration, we have selected a very special movie for our quarterly "Encore Film Series" event. On Friday, February 17 WDCB presents the documentary "A Great Day in Harlem" chronicling the making of the iconic jazz photograph shot in New York in 1958.

And if you've been wondering about our annual Valentine's Dinner Dance... After extensive planning last Fall, we were about to unveil plans for the big event to be held at a new venue, the historic Willowbrook Ballroom.

Happy Listening! Dan Bindert - WDCB Station Manager
