

From the Station Manager's Desk!

With the change of seasons, it's a time of change for us here at WDCB. You're probably aware of Barry Winograd's September retirement from his midday 'DCB Jazz airshift. We'd like to salute and thank Barry for sharing so much great jazz over the years on WDCB. Don't forget, you can still hear Barry every Saturday morning from 10-11am hosting "When Jazz Was King." And we trust that you are already enjoying the work of Leslie Keros as her familiar voice and excellent style accompanies you through our midday 'DCB Jazz program Mondays to Fridays.

One thing that definitely isn't changing...WDCB's station-wide commitment to bringing you the best jazz, blues, roots music and arts coverage, all from a uniquely Chicagoland perspective. I feel confident telling you that you'll continue to enjoy the finest music every day on WDCB, always presented by our dedicated staff and volunteer hosts who are as passionate about the music as you. The fact that October is upon us also means our Fall Pledge Drive is here. Please give as generously as you can to help us keep the great sounds flowing on WDCB. We appreciate your continued support.

Happy listening! Dan Bindert - WDCB Station Manager
